

Hepatitis C is hard to catch.

It is not transmitted by touching someone who has it or drinking out of the same cup or using the same knives and forks.

It is transmitted when infected blood from one person gets into the bloodstream of someone else.

For more information about hepatitis C visit www.hepatitisc.org.au or call the Hep C Helpline (see over)

The Hepatitis C Council of NSW

– delivering hepatitis C information, support and training services across NSW

Website

www.hepatitisc.org.au

Hep C Helpline and
Hep Connect (peer support)
9332 1599 (Sydney)
1800 803 990 (NSW freecall)

Online peer support forum
www.hepcaustralasia.org

PO Box 432
DARLINGHURST NSW 1300
Tel: 02 9332 1853
Fax: 02 9332 1730
hccnsw@hepatitisc.org.au

Donations over $2 are tax deductible.
The Hepatitis C Council of NSW is funded by the NSW Health Department

Hepatitis C
Council of NSW